

Studies in Job

Job's Lament: Cursed be the Day I was Born (Job 3:1-25)

Review

Introduction: Job is going to break the silence

I. Job Curses the Day of His Birth (3:1-10)

A. Job opens his mouth (1-2)

B. Job's curses (3-10)

II. Job Curses His Life (11-19)

A. He wishes that he would have been still born (11)

B. He wishes his parents would have discarded him (12)

C. Death is pictured as desirable rest (13-19)

III. Job Desires Death (20-26)

A. Why does God give life to those who want death? (20-23)

B. Job's restless agony (24-26)

Summary