

“The Prince and the Priests”

Ezekiel 44:1-14

I. An _____ gate will be reserved for the prince to enter and to feast before the Lord (44:1-3).

- a. The first questions Bible students ask involve the east gate: _____ was it shut?
_____ was it shut?

Revelation 21:22-27

- b. The second questions people ask is about this prince: Is He _____? Or is he an entirely human man of _____ descent?

Ezekiel 45:22; 46:16; 46:2-8

II. The consequences of sin brings _____.

- a. Ezekiel is _____, perhaps with grief over the guilt of Israel, as God presents the northern gate to Ezekiel and reminds him of Israel’s sinful disregard for the temple (44:4-8).
- b. The lineages of priests who allowed Israel’s abuses of the temple will be _____ in this temple through receiving a limited venue of service in it (44:9-14).

1 Corinthians 3:9-17, 1 Timothy 5:19-20, Matthew 5:21-37