

Psalm 51:1-19

Putting It All Together

Repentance is a characteristic of the whole life, not the action of a single moment

- Sinclair Ferguson, The Grace of Repentance, p. 11

Luther saw that the Gospel called not for an act of penance but for a radical change of mind that would lead to a deep transformation of life

- Sinclair Ferguson, The Grace of Repentance, p. 11

5 Key Actions in Repentance

Psalm 51

I. Appeal to God (1-2)

5 Key Actions in Repentance

Psalm 51

- I. Appeal to God (1-2)
- II. Confess your sin thoroughly (3-6)

5 Key Actions in Repentance

Psalm 51

- I. Appeal to God (1-2)
- II. Confess your sin thoroughly (3-6)
- III. Pray for restoration (7-12)

5 Key Actions in Repentance

Psalm 51

- I. Appeal to God (1-2)
- II. Confess your sin thoroughly (3-6)
- III. Pray for restoration (7-12)
- IV. Vow to change (13-17)

Vow to Change

- Commit to helping others fight sin and find forgiveness (13).
- Rejoice in God's righteousness which provides for your restoration (14).
- Plead for God's grace to restore you to grateful worship (15).
- Remind yourself that God is not pleased with doing external rituals alone (16).
- Offer crushed-heart humility to God in worship (17).

5 Key Actions in Repentance

Psalm 51

- I. Appeal to God (1-2)
- II. Confess your sin thoroughly (3-6)
- III. Pray for restoration (7-12)
- IV. Vow to change (13-17)
- V. Aim for new targets (18-19)