

The Sovereignty of God in the Book of Daniel
(Daniel 4:34-37)

The word "sovereign is both a noun and a verb. As a verb it means "to rule", and as a noun it means "king" or absolute ruler." When we say that God is sovereign we are saying that God is in charge of the entire universe all the time. God's sovereignty means that He is absolutely free to do what He wants, when He wants, where He wants, how He wants to whom He wants.

And God said, "Let there be light" (Gen. 1:3)

There are many devices in a man's heart, nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand. (Prov. 19:21)

Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not. (Lam. 3:37)

But our God is in the heavens, He hath done whatsoever He hath pleased. (Ps. 115:3)

For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this or that. (James 4:15)
