

- 1) What should be our goals for this New Year?
- 2) What was nailed to the cross of Jesus? Some people say that the Ten Commandments were there. How could that be since we still need to obey Jesus?
- 3) Can Christians drink alcohol? The bible does not prohibit it, but calls us to holiness.
- 4) Is Isaiah 2 and 3 speaking directly to Israel of its day, or can this Scripture be understood to apply to the United States today—with regard to both the church and nation?
- 5) What happens if someone cannot access a Bible? Do you believe that the Holy Spirit can speak to someone supernaturally?
- 6) I have been in a rut about health issues—mine and others. I can pray and ask for comfort and care, but not healing. The body must die to be with our Savior, so trying to live is like fighting God's plan. I know I should feel something more. Do emotions burn out after taking years of prayer requests in Sunday School?
- 7) The Lord Jesus said we could move mountains if we "have faith as a grain of mustard seed" (Matt. 17:20). What does that mean?
- 8) When Jesus died, He said, "It is finished" (John 19:30). What did He mean by this?
