The burnt offering is the foundation for all other worship and life, because it is a picture of total dedication of the total person.

We see:

1. The cost of the "victim" means that all God's people are able to give their best, because God gives His "Best" as a "victim."
2. The procedures (ritual) in the burnt offering shows the "victim" presented to God in the place of the sinner.
3. The total and continuous burning shows that every part of life, every day, is totally dedicated to God.

The church is called to be a confessing church, that she may be,

Questions for discussion
[Sermon: Leviticus 1:2-17]

1. In what sense is the burnt offering still needed today?

2. What do we learn from God allowing three kinds of “victims”?

3. What do we learn from the offering needing to be a male without blemishes?

4. What does the “laying on of hands” teach us?
What does the killing of the victim and the sprinkling of blood teach us?

5. What do we learn from the “washings” (entrails & legs)?

6. What do we learn from the requirement of the fire of the burnt offering to consume all of it, and to never go out?
