

Marks of a Healthy Church

- I. A healthy Church is filled with people who have eagerly embraced the content of the gospel message.

- II. A healthy Church is filled with people who joyfully accepted the demands of the gospel.
 - a – Becoming imitators of the Lord.
 - b – Preserving through trials.

Marks of a Healthy Church

III. A healthy Church is making an impact beyond the confines of its own fellowship.