

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem”

Look To Christ, Who Comes In The Name Of The Lord

Luke 13:31-35

It is difficult for Christians to be brave when confronted with the anger or rejection of unbelievers in various sectors of society. Today a cleric instructs Jesus to depart because of perceived political danger. Yet Jesus does not turn tail, but announces judgment upon Jerusalem’s political (and spiritual) capital. Let us hear the lessons from this sorrow-filled statement, and look with hope for a band of singing saints blessings the Lord.

I. Jesus’ run in with _____ and _____ (v 31-32a)

II. The spiritual and _____ performed by Jesus (v 32b - 33)

III. The case against the “_____” _____ (v 34)

IV. Absolute _____ and anticipated _____ (v 35; Psalm 118)
