

THE REFORMATION

Lady Jane Grey
1 Timothy 4:12

1. Whether youth or adult, we should be careful that the fruit of our life _____ the Christian faith we profess even in challenging circumstances.

“I will tell you a truth which perchance ye will marvel at. One of the greatest _____ that God ever gave me is that He sent me so sharp and severe parents and so gentle a schoolmaster.” - Lady Jane Grey

“Her rare goodness has made every day a _____.” - spoken of Katharine Parr

“If what hath been given me is lawfully mine, may Thy divine Majesty grant me such grace that I may _____ to Thy glory and service, to the advantage of this realm.” - Lady Jane Grey

2. Whether youth or adult, we should hold _____ to the doctrines of the Christian faith to the end of our life.

- a. The Word of God is the authority for what we believe.

“I ground my faith upon God’s Word and not upon the church. For if the church be a good church, the faith of the church must be tried by God’s Word, and not God’s Word by the _____, neither yet my faith.” - Lady Jane Grey

- b. Love for God and for others is the priority in life.

“I have here sent you, good _____ Katherine, a book, which although it be not outwardly trimmed with gold, yet inwardly it is more worth than precious stones.” - Lady Jane Grey

- c. The doctrines of the faith must be understood and guarded.

“With _____, Jane watched from her window in the tower as her father-in-law, John Dudley, was escorted to the mass after recanting his faith, and she was heard to say, ‘I pray God I, nor no friend of mine die so.’” - Michael Haykin

“She mounted the scaffold stairs and standing there in that chill February morning, Jane briefly addressed the small crowd gathered and urged them to know that she died, ‘a true Christian woman’ and that ‘I do look to be saved by no other mean, but _____ by the mercy of God, in the blood of His only Son Jesus Christ.’” - Michael Haykin
