The restoration of the kingdom required a fulfillment of Scripture and thus a replacement for Judas.

We see:

1. As the apostles wait for the Holy Spirit they reflect on what He had already said through David, and how his kingdom was restored during attack from within.
2. The requirements for the replacement show us the work of the apostles, which Christ will use to restore His kingdom.
3. The process of choosing the replacement shows us a path for biblical government.
