

“Union With Christ”

A Branch In The Fullness Of Jesus The Vine

John 15:1-11 (901); Isaiah 27:1-6 (587)

It was while Jesus was walking with his disciples through the Kidron Valley the night before Passover (possibly April 2, A.D. 33) that he taught them a vital lesson. The timing of this “Abide In Me” sermon (John 15) is ironic, because in a mere few hours Jesus would be taken from them, and would “no longer talk much with you” (Jn. 14:30). Yet through the Spirit speaking to us by the Scriptures our union with Christ is real, and we can live in intimate communion with the resurrected, reigning Savior.
