O Lord, truly I am Your servant; I am Your servant,
the son of Your maidservant; You have loosed my bonds.

I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows to the Lord now in the presence of all His people,
In the courts of the Lord's house, In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Praise the Lord! Psalm 116:16-19

WLC Q. 174. What is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper in the time of the administration of it? A. It is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper, that, during the time of the administration of it, with all holy reverence and attention they wait upon God in that ordinance, diligently observe the sacramental elements and actions, heedfully discern the Lord's body, and affectionately meditate on his death and sufferings, and thereby stir up themselves to a vigorous exercise of their graces; in judging themselves, and sorrowing for sin; in earnest hungering and thirsting after Christ, feeding on him by faith, receiving of his fullness, trusting in his merits, rejoicing in his love, giving thanks for his grace; in renewing of their covenant with God, and love to all the saints.

WLC Q. 175. What is the duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper? A. The duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper, is seriously to consider how they have behaved themselves therein, and with what success; if they find quickening and comfort, to bless God for it, beg the continuance of it, watch against relapses, fulfill their vows, and encourage themselves to a frequent attendance on that ordinance: but if they find no present benefit, more exactly to review their preparation to, and carriage at, the sacrament; in both which, if they can approve themselves to God and their own consciences, they are to wait for the fruit of it in due time: but, if they see they have failed in either, they are to be humbled, and to attend upon it afterwards with more care and diligence.

- I. Consider our behavior and the results
- II. If we find quickening and comfort
 - a. Bless God for it (praise)
 - b. Beg continuing of it (prayer)
 - c. Watch against relapses
 - d. Fulfill our vows
 - e. Encourage ourselves to a frequent attendance at the Lord's Supper
- III. If we find no present benefit
 - a. Review our preparation for the Lord's Supper
 - b. Review our carriage at the Lords Supper
 - c. If we can approve of our behavior
 - i. Wait for the fruit of the Lord's Supper (faith)
 - d. If we have failed in our preparation and carriage
 - i. Be humbled
 - ii. Be more careful in the future
 - iii. Be more diligent in the future
