

Theme: As the opposition against Jesus intensifies he answers questions that will be asked through the ages: Who is he? Where does he come from? Where is he going? Questions we must still answer today.

Background: Jesus faces rising opposition In the middle of the feast of Booths/Tabernacles.

Introduction: “Where are you from?” doesn’t always have a simple answer. Jesus leaves the Jews wondering just what he means by his answers to simple questions.

I. Is This The Christ?

A. Raising A Provocative Question

1. Aren’t they seeking to kill him?
 - From a New Constituency – Jerusalemites (25)
 - Aware of the plot (26,30)
2. Why don’t they stop him?
 - Because his “hour had not yet come”

B. An Intriguing Answer

- Maybe they know he really is the Christ! (26b)
- Nah! Can’t mean that

C. Can we expect anything more?

- Seeing works greater than those of Moses
- Heard teaching with authority greater than Moses

II. Where Does He Come From?

A. Exposing their confusion (27)

1. We do know where you come from
 - Galilee, of course
2. We don’t know where Messiah comes from
 - a. We know his birth place
 - Matthew 2:3-5; Micah 5:2
 - b. We don’t know his beginning
 - Daniel 9:25; Malachi 3:1

B. He was sent (28,29)

NOTE: The real question is about his “authority”. Is he an independent voice or does he come with the authority of a teacher?

1. You know where I’m from
 - In regard to his earthly heritage
2. You don’t know the one who sent me
 - His authority is not self-declared, but is that of the Lord of heaven!
 - a. You don’t know him
 - 5:37-42; 8:19, 42-44, 55
 - b. Nor the one he has sent

NOTE: The people of Jerusalem thought they could reject his word/work because in their minds, he had no “sender”, no authority to back him up. (cf. Exodus 3:10)

APPLICATION: Those who go forth in the name of Christ are “sent”! You don’t speak, act, share, on your own authority. In Christ, we are commissioned as his ambassadors.

III. Where Is He Going?

A. To jail? (30)

1. Arrest him! (32)
 - a. Crowd is beginning to believe (31)
 - b. Pharisees “hear” the murmuring of the crowd
 - Rising concerns
 - Plot becomes clear
 - c. “Chief Priests” have the position of power
 - Combining forces
2. Not yet
 - His time had not yet come.
 - Knows where he is headed – and when – and how

B. To his Father (33)

1. Opposition is rising
 - Not going to be with them much longer
 - Turns to topic of his death
2. Back to him who sent me (33)
 - He is going to heaven, to be with the Father

C. Where they cannot come (34)

1. Seek and you won’t find!
 - a. Can certainly relate to the resurrection
 - b. May well be more troubling
 - Amos 8:11,12
2. You can’t come where I am
 - Not where “I am going”, but where “I am”
 - He is already with the one who sent him

NOTE: By faith, we are now both with him and in him. We await a fuller reality of that union, but it is a present reality.

D. The ends of the earth? (35)

1. Saying more than they know
 - To the Jews of the Diaspora?
 - To teach the Greeks?
 - A preposterous idea! Couldn’t imagine such a thing.

NOTE: The very method Paul used to take the gospel the world

2. Missing the point
3. Troubled by the truth (36)
 - Jesus again, speaks in a type of “parable”
 - They do not know the one who sent him, hence, they do not understand

IV. The Questions We Must Answer – Back where we started

- A. Will anyone do more than he has done?
- B. Was He Just a Man or was he sent from God?
- C. Is this the Christ?
- D. What more are you looking for?
