

“The Great Gulf”

Isaiah 42:1-25

---

INTRODUCTION

- words that bind and obligate

Is. 46:11

- greatness and grandeur v. depravity and deadness

Is. 41:21-29

“Whatever a man depends upon, whatever rules his mind, whatever governs his affections, whatever is the chief object of his delight, is his god.” – C.H. Spurgeon

1. The description of God’s Servant (42:1-9)

- the Servant’s character (1-4)

– who is like Him?

– what He will not do

Jn. 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 12:44

- the Servant’s role (5-9)

2. The delight in God’s glory (42:10-17)

- the command to sing (10-13)

- the reason to sing (14-17)

Gal. 4:4-5

3. The depravity of God’s people (42:18-25)

- a squandered privilege (18-22)

- a certain punishment (23-25)

CONCLUSION