

I Choose ...

I Choose Trust! (Romans 8:26-30)

1. Prayer—God knows our deepest needs through the intercessory work of the indwelling Holy Spirit (8:26-27).

- The Holy Spirit joins with Christians to help us in our weak condition (8:26a).
- Due to our weak condition, we often don't know what to pray in certain circumstances (8:26b).
- The Holy Spirit intercedes for us in our weak condition with wordless groans (8:26c).
- God the Father fully grasps the intercessions of the Holy Spirit on our behalf (8:27).

2. Providence—God fulfills His good purpose for our lives through His providential work (8:28).

- God providentially weaves together everything in our lives for His good (8:28a).
- God providentially works in the lives of all believers to fulfill His purpose in our lives (8:28b).

3. Predestination—God secures us in our relationship with Him through His eternal plan of salvation (8:29-30).

- God foreknew His people (8:29a).
- God predestined His people (8:29b).
- God called His people (8:30a).
- God justified His people (8:30b).
- God glorified His people (8:30c).
