GALATIANS 4:8–20

1. “Do you really want to go back to being slaves again?” (verses 8–11).
2. “How did you go from loving me to treating me like an enemy?” (verses 12–16).
3. “How would you compare what drives the false teachers and what drives me?” (verses 17–20).

THE MAIN POINT OF GALATIANS 4:8–20

*It pains gospel ministers to see Christians drift from the true gospel.
Those who are drifting must be reminded of the freedom that the gospel offers.*

THE FREEDOMS THAT THE GOSPEL OFFERS

GALATIANS 4:8–20

1. The gospel offers the freedom of knowing God—rather, of being known by God (verses 8–11).

The gospel is the message of God the Father who gives God the Son to die in the place of condemned lawbreakers
and who unleashes in every believer
the power of God the Spirit.

Embracing this message is the only way to restore sinners to be “very good”
as we were originally created.
