JOHN: The glory of Jesus—Part 31

Sermon: John 17:1-10

The glory of Jesus as Priest in prayer. {Part 1}

We see:

1. Jesus prays for the Father's glory in His restoration to glory (vv.1-5).
2. Jesus prays for those who are given to Him out of the world (vv.6-10).

Questions for discussion: [see on the table]

The Church is called to be a confessing church, that she may be, the pillar and ground of the truth (1Tim. 3:15,16)

The Canons of Dort

The First Main Point of Doctrine (The "U" in TULIP)

Article 7: Election

Election [or choosing] is God's unchangeable purpose by which he did the following:

Before the foundation of the world, by sheer grace, according to the free good pleasure of his will, he chose in Christ to salvation a definite number of particular people out of the entire human race, which had fallen by its own fault from its original innocence into sin and ruin. Those chosen were neither better nor more deserving than the others, but lay with them in the common misery. He did this in Christ, whom he also appointed from eternity to be the mediator, the head of all those chosen, and the foundation of their salvation. And so he decided to give the chosen ones to Christ to be saved, and to call and draw them effectively into Christ's fellowship through his Word and Spirit. In other words, he decided to grant them true faith in Christ, to justify them, to sanctify them, and finally, after powerfully preserving them in the fellowship of his Son, to glorify them.

God did all this in order to demonstrate his mercy, to the praise of the riches of his glorious grace.

As Scripture says, God chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world, so that we should be holy and blameless before him with love; he predestined us whom he adopted as his children through Jesus Christ, in himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, by which he freely made us pleasing to himself in his beloved (Eph. 1:4-6). And elsewhere, Those whom he predestined, he also called; and those whom he called, he also justified; and those whom he justified, he also glorified (Rom. 8:30).

PREPARATION FOR LORD'S SUPPER

Lord willing, we will celebrate the Lord's Supper next Sunday. In the name of Christ, we call all members to prepare for this by examining their heart and life; that we may partake as those who trust fully in Christ as our only Savior and Lord and are committed to obeying Him in every part of our life.

Visitors, who are members in good standing of a Bible-believing church, are encouraged to join us and to talk to the Session so that we may welcome you.

Questions for discussion

[Sermon: John 17:1-10]

1. What does it speak of that Jesus lifted up His eyes to heaven?
2. In this prayer we surely are to see that the hour refers to what specific four things?
3. In v. 3 what does it say about eternal life (vs. giving a definition of eternal life)?
4. Since Jesus is praying for God's sovereign will and plan, what does that tell us about prayer?
5. In vv. 6-10, (a) who does Jesus pray for, and (b) what does this tell us about His glory?
6. What is some amazing reality about Jesus praying they have kept Your word ?
