

“What Is A ‘Disciple’ Anyway?”

Seven Qualities Of A Biblical Disciple

Mark 1:14-20, 2:13-17 (836)

Jesus never called his followers ‘Christians’ (see Acts 26:11). But on many occasions he called them ‘disciples’ and carefully defined what this term meant. This year our congregation is intent on ‘training faithful disciples.’ If we are to be successful in this critical endeavor, we must first fix clearly in mind the answer to this critical question: what is a disciple, anyway?

- I. A disciple comes to _____ without _____ (Luke 14:26-27).

- II. A disciple _____ to Jesus’ _____ (John 8:31-32; 15:7-8).

- III. A disciple displays _____ to people in Jesus’ _____ (John 13:34-35).

- IV. A disciple is committed to _____ (Matt. 10:24-25a).

- V. A disciple is committed to _____ (John 15:8, 16).

- VI. A disciple lets Jesus’ _____ and provides for others (John 13:5,14-15).

- VII. A disciple knows _____ Jesus _____ and his plan for making additional _____ (Matt. 28:16-20).
