New Psalm Tunes – November

Weekly Quote

"I am coming to thee, therefore I commend them to thee, beseeching thee, that thou through thy power wouldst keep those, who, in giving themselves up to me, have also given themselves up to thee; let their owning thy name (which is as a strong tower, Prov. 18:10) keep them from all the temptations and dangers to which they will be exposed in the world, wherein they are to live and converse: that they may be one, one body, and in one Spirit; that they may own one Lord, one faith, one baptism, &c.; that they may be one in love and affection, as we are; in some proportion to that union which is betwixt thee and me, though not in an equality. This prayer of our Saviour's doth both oblige all those who in any sincerity own Christ, to study union both in opinion and affection; and also give us ground of hopes, that there is a time coming, when there shall be greater measure of it than we have seen in those miserably divided times wherein we have lived, and do yet live." – Matthew Poole

Who we Are:

Westminster: As historic reformed believers, we recognize that in God's gracious providence he has provided His Church with many creeds and confessions. Our Church subscribes to the Westminster Standards – which encompass the teachings of the Bible in the best human expression.

Presbyterian: In our form of church government and practice we are presbyterian – simply put, we believe in a church government that is instituted by God and is entrusted to His ambassadors; ministers and elders in their several bodies.

Church: God is calling a people unto Himself, and He has a special care for his bride, the Church! Where His special care is seen in the provision of growth, worship, and practice as we are fitly joined together into a whole as the Bride of Christ.
