

“A Passion for the Lost”

Luke 15

- b. The older brother is angered at the father’s mercy and _____ grace even though it costs the older brother _____ (15:25-32).

- I. Jesus tells a parable illustrating a truth in your daily life: If you have a hundred possessions and have lost one, your concern is set on the _____ one more than on the 99 and, when found, _____ more in the one than in the 99 (15:3-6).
- a. Jesus likens the salvation of a spiritually lost _____ to the joy felt by the man and all of his friends over finding a the lost sheep (15:7).
- b. In his comparison of the lost to those who “need no repentance,” one might wonder what He meant: Does there exist among man anyone who at any level needs no repentance or is this a reference to those who _____ as someone who needs no repentance?
- II. For those not involved with animal husbandry, the loss of a coin can occupy your _____ so long as it is lost and elate your _____ when it is found (15:8-10).
- III. Jesus tells the parable of a _____ son (prodigal=wasteful) who comes to ruin (15:11-16).
- a. The younger son was “_____” to the father who rejoices in his return (15:17-24).