

Introduction and Relevance...

1. Many hear the Gospel invitation and refuse to come to Christ to be saved...
2. Parables give us valuable spiritual insight...
3. This parable “the Wedding Feast, Matthew 22:1-7 teaches the goodness of God and the sinful neglect of man...

I. What It Means to Pay No Attention

- A. To have unreasonable apathy...
- B. To be unimpressed, easily forget...
- C. To Remain unsaved...

II. The Ones Paying No Attention Identified...

A. Some people in the world reject the Gospel outright...

1. Skeptics...
2. The openly hostile (scoffers)... Psalm 1:1ff
3. The ungodly (profane and immoral)

B. Jesus is speaking of those paying no attention...

1. Those taken up with temporal things... Luke 14:18

Observation:

- a. Things lawful and even necessary...
 - b. The claim of diligence and hard work...
 - c. Self-sacrifice...
2. Those satisfied with a mere outward form of religion...

Lesson:

III. The Awful Outcome of Paying No Attention

- A. It is irreverent...
- B. Ungrateful...
- C. Disobedient and a rejection of mercy...

It is to make common:

1. The Word of God
2. The Gospel
3. One's own soul
4. God Himself
5. Christ and all He did...
6. Heaven
7. Hell
8. Eternity

Application: