

The Apostles' Creed Study
Week 8 Notes
From whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead

What's revealed in the return of Christ is _____. Matthew 25:31-46

There's a day that all the _____ and all the _____ will sit around His glorious throne, and no one will dispute in that moment that He's King.

Jesus says that "I the Shepherd, I the Son of Man, I the King, that I will step in, and I'll _____ the sheep from the goats."

The King who is the Judge, who is sitting in glory on His throne, _____ Himself with the lowly.

1. SYMMETRY

We have a _____ who is looking to us and giving us mercy.

We have a just Judge. He is right to _____ sin. Genesis 18:20-33

You've been declared _____ because you stand in Christ and not on your own merits.

2. CLARITY

Christ takes no pleasure in the _____ of the wicked. Ezekiel 33:10-11; Luke 19:41-44

3. COMMUNITY

Not only all the angels but all of the nations, all of the people _____ the throne.

There should be a weightiness of _____ for brothers and sisters all throughout the world that are being persecuted. And there should be a rejoicing when the Lord does things all around the world.

4. COUNSEL

There's faithfulness in the practical _____.

It's a call for us to be serious about the _____ of the Kingdom. 2 Timothy 4:1-5
