Isaiah 64:5-7

5 You meet him who joyfully works righteousness,
those who remember you in your ways.

*Behold, you were angry, and we sinned;
in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we be saved?*

6 *We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment.*

*We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.*

7 There is no one who calls upon your name,
who rouses himself to take hold of you;

*for you have hidden your face from us,
and have made us melt in the hand of our iniquities.*

1 John 3:12

*By this it is evident who are the children of God,
and who are the children of the devil:*

*Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God,
nor is the one who does not love his brother.*

“When salvation has taken place in the life of someone under the sovereign hand of God, they are set free from the penalty of sin and its power. In a body without the Spirit, sin is an unshakable king under whose dominion no man can flee. The entire body, with its members, affections, and mind all willfully submit themselves to sin’s rule. But when the Spirit of God takes back the body that He created for Himself, He sets it free from the pathetic master that once held it captive and releases it into the marvelous light of its Savior. It is then able to not only want God, but it is actually able to obey God. And isn’t that what freedom is supposed to be? The ability to not do as I please, but the power to do what is pleasing.”
