Notes:

Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
Meeting at: 1008 West Erwin Avenue, McKinney, TX 75069

1 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. 2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. 3 God is in her palaces; He is known as her refuge.

Psalm 48:1-3

WCF Ch. 5. Of Providence. 5. The most wise, righteous, and gracious God doth oftentimes leave, for a season, His own children to manifold temptations, and the corruption of their own hearts, to chastise them for their former sins, or to discover unto them the hidden strength of corruption and deceitfulness of their hearts, that they may be humbled; and, to raise them to a more close and constant dependence for their support upon Himself, and to make them more watchful against all future occasions of sin, and for sundry other just and holy ends.

I. The temple

II. The enemies of God

III. The loss of the things of God

WLC Q. 190. What do we pray for in the first petition? A. In the first petition (which is, Hallowed be thy name,) acknowledging the utter inability and indisposition that is in ourselves and all men to honor God aright, we pray, that God would by his grace enable and include us and others to know, to acknowledge, and highly to esteem him, his titles, attributes, ordinances, word, works, and whatsoever he is pleased to make himself known by; and to glorify him in thought, word, and deed: that he would prevent and remove atheism, ignorance, idolatry, profaneness [Ps 74:18, 22-23], and whatsoever is dishonorable to him; and by his overruling providence, direct and dispose of all things to his own glory A Psalm about sorrow.

I. Losing the signs and the prophets

II. Experiencing God's judgment

III. Living under the Babylonians

IV. Hoping in God

V. Remembering God's works
