Quotes

The Transfiguration “was an assurance to the disciples that Christ would yet finish the work and be glorified, and they glorified in him. Ah! Brethren, it is a sweet assurance to you and me that Christ is now glorified. His raiment is now white as the light, and that raiment is what he offers to you and me.” (Robert M McCheyne)

“The whole Old Testament was standing up to say that everything was coming together in Christ.” (Ryken)

“The Church cannot follow God as its guide, except it observes what the Word prescribes.” (John Calvin)
