

Introduction

- I. We must approach the Triune God with awe and reverence, as we hear of Him.
- II. The Trinity first is the heart and core of our faith.

Confessing That God is Triune

I. The Amazing Truth

- A. The source of the Trinity is the Holy Scriptures, as we read in A. 25.
 1. The Scriptures teach throughout that the Triune God is the Creator, Redeemer, and Purifier.
 1. God brings everything into being by His Word and Spirit.
 2. The truth of the Trinity comes out more fully in redemption.
 3. We see the work of Triune God in the work of the Holy Spirit, Who sanctifies.

II. The Beautiful Significance

- A. This truth is significant for understanding the truth of the covenant.
 1. The truth of the Trinity must be kept in view to understand God's sovereign work of salvation.

III. The Right Response

- A. The truth of the Trinity shows us that our God is great and greatly to be praised.
 1. Let us respond to this truth by trusting in our covenant God.