

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE IN HIGH DEF

Something To Be Really Thankful For!

Romans 8:31-39

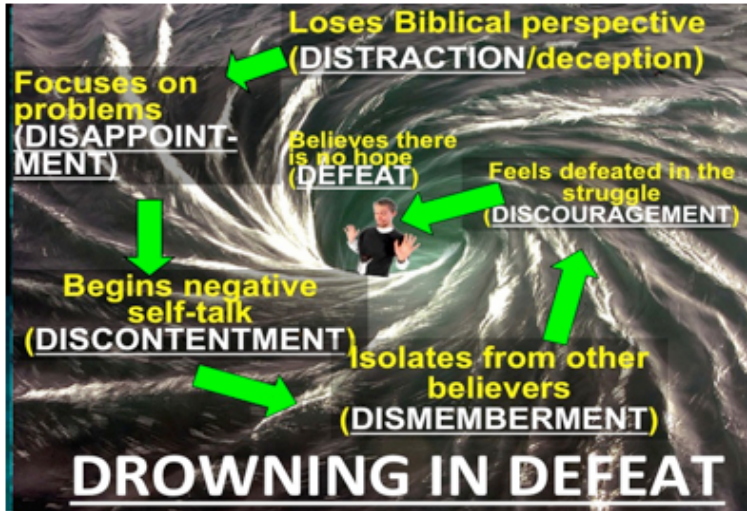

Pastor Mel Svendsen
November 22, 2015

Bottom Line:

The fact that God is for us can change the way we live our lives for the better in a very uncertain and rebellious world. God gave us His only Son, but that's just the beginning of how God ultimately will demonstrate His love for us!

1. In Christ, I cannot be ultimately _____.

*We can be free from _____. Romans 8:31

2. In Christ, I cannot be ultimately _____.

*We can release our _____. Romans 8:32

3. In Christ, I cannot be ultimately _____.

*We can overcome our _____. Romans 8:33

4. In Christ, I cannot be ultimately _____.

*We can be abolish our _____. Romans 8:34

5. In Christ, I cannot be ultimately _____.

*We can rise above the hurt of _____.
Romans 8:35-39

Now What?

1) Be _____ in your worship that God is for you. Psalm 73:15-16; 23-28; Philippians 4:6-7

2) Respond in gratitude by developing a _____ life of ministry (doing) and personal growth (being).
Luke 5:15-16

3) Reject paralyzing _____ thinking that isn't from the Lord. 2 Timothy 1:7

4) Trust God's bigger _____ in the midst of temporary struggles! Isaiah 55:9