- I. The Circumstances of This Test of Faith
 - A. The Clear Command of God That Abraham Must Obey
 - B. The Clear Promise of God That Abraham Must Believe
 - C. Application: It is important in such a test of faith to be sure you are dealing with clear principles and statements of the Word of God.

- II. The Solution for This Test of Faith
 - A. The Truth of God's Word
 - B. The Truth of God's Power and Sovereignty
 - C. The Truth of God's Love and Grace
 - D. Applications
 - 1. It is good and right for us to reason to a reconciliation of the appearance of contradictions in the test of faith, IF we reason from God's Word.
 - 2. When asked to offer up our Isaac, let us seek to find support and encouragement in the very same truths that Abraham did.

- III. The Triumph in This Test of Faith
 - A. Triumph Evidenced by Obedience – Isaac Offered Up
 - B. Triumph Evidenced by Reward – Isaac Received Again
