Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
Meeting at: 2525 E. Trinity Mills Rd., Carrollton, TX 75006

“Now it shall come to pass, when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you call them to mind among all the nations where the Lord your God drives you, 2 and you return to the Lord your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul, 3 that the Lord your God will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the nations where the Lord your God has scattered you...”

Deuteronomy 30:1-3

WLC Q. 120. What are the reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, the more to enforce it? A. The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, the more to enforce it, are taken from the equity of it, God allowing us six days of seven for our own affairs, and reserving but one for himself, in these words, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work: from God's challenging a special propriety in that day, the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: from the example of God, who in six days made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: and from that blessing which God put upon that day, not only in sanctifying it to be a day for his service, but in ordaining it to be a means of blessing to us in our sanctifying it, wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath-day and hallowed it.

- I. Godly examples are needed
- II. Godly examples must be followed
- III. Godly examples point us to Christ
- IV. Godly examples lead us to serve others
- V. Godly examples strengthen us in persecution

WLC Q. 171. How are they that receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to prepare themselves before they come unto it? A. They that receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto, by examining themselves of their being in Christ; of their sins and wants; of the truth and measure of their knowledge, faith, repentance, love to God and the brethren, charity to all men, forgiving those that have done them wrong; of their desires after Christ, and of their new obedience; and by renewing the exercise of these graces, by serious meditation, and fervent prayer. WLC Q. 173. May any who profess the faith, and desire to come to the Lord's Supper, be kept from it? A. Such as are found to be ignorant or scandalous, notwithstanding their profession of the faith, and desire to come to the Lord's Supper, may and ought to be kept from that Sacrament, by the power which Christ hath left in his Church, until they receive instruction, and manifest their reformation.

- I. We heed the warning of Saul and David
- II. We must be willing to hear
- III. We must be willing to submit
- IV. We must be willing to change
- V. We will manifest reformation
