“They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, artistically worked. It shall have two shoulder straps joined at its two edges, and so it shall be joined together. And the intricately woven band of the ephod, which is on it, shall be of the same workmanship, made of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen. Then you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel: six of their names on one stone and six names on the other stone, in order of their birth... And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord on his two shoulders as a memorial.” Exodus 28:5-10, 12

WLC Q. 171. How are they that receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to prepare themselves before they come unto it? A. They that receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto, by examining themselves of their being in Christ; of their sins and wants; of the truth and measure of their knowledge, faith, repentance, love to God and the brethren, charity to all men, forgiving those that have done them wrong; of their desires after Christ, and of their new obedience; and by renewing the exercise of these graces, by serious meditation, and fervent prayer. WLC Q. 172. May one who doubteth of his being in Christ, or of his due preparation, come to the Lord's Supper? A. One who doubteth of his being in Christ, or of his due preparation to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, may have true interest in Christ, though he be not yet assured thereof; and in God's account hath it, if he be duly affected with the apprehension of the want of it, and unfeignedly desires to be found in Christ, and to depart from iniquity: in which case (because promises are made, and this Sacrament is appointed, for the relief even of weak and doubting Christians) he is to bewail his unbelief, and labor to have his doubts resolved; and, so doing, he may and ought to come to the Lord's Supper, that he may be further strengthened.

- I. Can I know that I am saved?
- II. Can the law of God help with my assurance?
- III. Will I always be assured?
- IV. How can my baptism help with assurance?
- V. How can prayer help with assurance?

WLC Q. 95. Of what use is the moral law to all men? A. The moral law is of use to all men, to inform them of the holy nature and will of God, and of their duty, binding them to walk accordingly; to convince them of their disability to keep it, and of the sinful pollution of their nature, hearts, and lives; to humble them in the sense of their sin and misery, and thereby help them to a clearer sight of the need they have of Christ, and of the perfection of his obedience. WLC Q. 123. Which is the fifth commandment? A. The fifth commandment is, Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. WLC Q. 131. What are the duties of equals? A. The duties of equals are, to regard the 1) dignity and 2) worth of each other, 3) in giving honor to go one before another; and 4) to rejoice in each other's gifts and 5) advancement, as their own. WLC Q. 132. What are the sins of equals? A. The sins of equals are, besides the neglect of the duties required, 1) the undervaluing of the worth, 2) envying the gifts, 3) grieving at the advancement or prosperity one of another; and 4) usurping pre-eminence one over another.

- I. Undervaluing the worth of our equals
- II. Envying the gifts of our equals
- III. Grieving the advancement or prosperity of our equals
- IV. Usurping the preeminence of our equals
