

PAUL'S LETTERS TO THE
THESSALONIANS

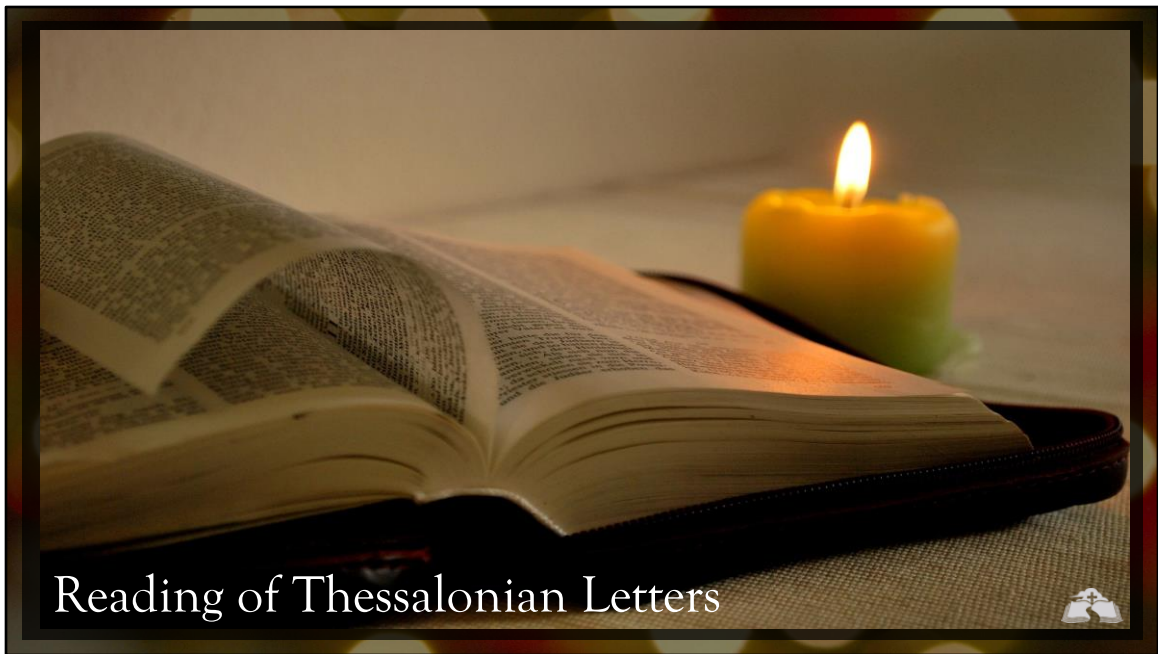

Lesson 13 • Reading and Reflection
November 28, 2021

LESSON PLAN

Lesson	Date	Passage
1	9/5/2021	Introduction
2	9/12/2021	1 Thessalonians 1:1-10
3	9/19/2021	1 Thessalonians 2:1-16
4	9/26/2021	1 Thessalonians 2:17-3:13
5	10/3/2021	1 Thessalonians 4:1-12
6	10/10/2021	1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11
7	10/17/2021	1 Thessalonians 5:12-28
8	10/24/2021	2 Thessalonians 1:1-12
9	10/31/2021	2 Thessalonians 2:1-12
10	11/7/2021	2 Thessalonians 2:13-3:5
11	11/14/2021	2 Thessalonians 3:6-18
12	11/21/2021	Review
13	11/28/2021	Reading and Reflection

Reading of Thessalonian Letters

There are numerous instructions for the church to read scripture in the context of gatherings. While there is a place and purpose to personal reading, I believe there is also something special and good when God's word is read aloud as part of our time together. It is not something we are used to and in an age of videos and visual media. And I fear we have lost the ability to focus and listen for more than just a few minutes. That said, I believe there is value in hearing these letters in whole after having studied them these last three months. So bibles down. Please do your best to just listen as if these letters were being read to you as a church hearing them for the first time.

Read both letters to the Thessalonians

Reflection

- How is the Gospel highlighted in these letters?
- How is our understanding of grace helped by these letters?
- How do these letters increase our love for God and His word?
- Personal Reflection
  - New insights and understanding
  - Application and implications for life/community
- General comments

5 minutes – 11:45 to 12:00

Any questions over what we have studied over the last 3 months?
Any feedback on the class?