Copperfield Bible Church

Pastor Dan Phillips

¹ “Now, take heed as to your righteousness, not to be doing before men so as to be noticed by them; otherwise you do not have reward with your Father who is in the heavens.

...⁵ “And whenever you pray, you are not to be as the hypocrites; because they are fond, in the synagogues and in the corners of the broad streets, of standing to pray, so that they may make an appearance to men. Amen, I tell you: they fully have their reward. ⁶ But you, whenever you pray, enter into your inner room, shut the door and pray to your Father who is in the hidden place; and your Father, who sees in the hidden place, will repay you. ⁷ And when praying, do not babble on even as the pagans; for they have the idea that because of their wordiness they will be listened to. ⁸ Therefore, do not become like them; for your Father knows the things of which you have need before you ask Him!”

^{9a} “Therefore, you should pray thus: ‘Our Father, who is in the heavens, ...’”
