I. The Account of David's Anointing

A. The One God Has Rejected as King – Saul (verses 1-5)

B. The Ones God Has Not Chosen as King – Jesse's Sons (verses 6-10)

C. The One God Has Chosen as King – David (verses 11-13)

II. The Lessons from David's Anointing

A. While the true Christian and the hypocrite may appear the same at the outset, it is the heart that in time will lead them to very different outcomes.

B. We should be cautious about the conclusions we draw concerning what lies in the heart.

C. God is not impressed with hypocrisy – God sees the heart.
