

"Men and Women Behaving in Church" 1 Timothy 2:8-15

| I.  | Paul g   | ives his desire and                   | for the men in the    |  |  |
|---|--|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|--|--|
| church (2:8).   |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   | a.   | Men ought to pray lifting             | hands to              |  |  |
|   | God without hearts of anger or quarreling (2:8). |                                       |                       |  |  |
| Psalm 134:1-3   |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
| b. Women's adornment should not bring                           |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   |  | to their b                            | oodies but should be  |  |  |
| a metaphysical adornment of modesty and self-                   |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   | control (2:9-10).                                |                                       |                       |  |  |
| 1 Peter   | 3:3-4; 1   | Timothy 5:14; 2 Timothy 3:6-7; Matthe | w 5:14-16; 1 Timothy  |  |  |
| 5:9-10; 5:25; Titus 2:7   |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
| II. Women are further instructed to be in a role of             |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   |  | in the church.                        |                       |  |  |
|   | a.   | Positively stated women are to        | maintain a posture of |  |  |
|   |  | submission and                        | in the                |  |  |
| education of the assembly (2:11).                               |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
| Romans 16:1-7; 1 Timothy 2:1-7; 3:7; Titus 2:4-5; 2:6-8; 2:9-10 |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
| b. The command for submission and silence is                    |  |                                       |                       |  |  |
|   |  | clarified negatively by stating the   | ne converse, which    |  |  |
|   |  | is men an                             | d exercising          |  |  |
|   |  | over men                              | in the church (2:12)  |  |  |

1 Corinthians 14:34-38

| III. One      | e cannot relegate this body of teach                  | ning to            |  |
|---------------|---|--------------------|--|
|               | norms in Ephesus during the 1 st           |                    |  |
|               | entury A.D. due the fact Paul provides the reasons in |                    |  |
| į             | is text.  |                    |  |
| ;             | First, Paul links this order of submission in the     |                    |  |
|               | church to the   | in which God       |  |
|               | created man and woman (2:13).                         |                    |  |
| Genesis 1:27  | 7   |                    |  |
|               | Second, Paul links the order of submission as a       |                    |  |
|               | consequence of the first woman, Eve, being            |                    |  |
|               | thoroughly deceived by Satan or as a consequence      |                    |  |
|               | of the first man, Adam, being fully                   |                    |  |
|               | of his rebellion (2:14).                              |                    |  |
| Genesis 3:6,  | 13  |                    |  |
|               | As a consequence to Eve, Paul notes the coming o      |                    |  |
|               | theth   | rough woman (2:15) |  |
| Genesis 3:15; | 5; Galatians 4:4-5; 1 Timothy 1:14-15                 |                    |  |
|               |   |                    |  |
|               |   |                    |  |