

GOSPEL OF MARK
You Will All Fall Away
Mark 14:27-31

Mac Williams, Pastor
November 9, 2014

1. _____ are vulnerable to falling in the midst of trials and temptations.

a. We do not recognize the sin that our _____ is capable of.

b. We are often overly _____ in our ability to withstand temptations.

"Christ tells them, that though they should be kept by His grace from Judas' apostasy, yet they would have no reason to _____ of their constancy." - Matthew Henry

c. We can arrogantly consider ourselves better able to stand against temptation than _____.

d. God sometimes allows _____ to test our faith.

e. The _____ around us provides an ongoing theater for temptation.

2. The hope that believers have in the midst of overwhelming trials and temptations is found in _____.

a. It is the crucified, resurrected, and enthroned Christ that is our _____.

b. The Lord is fully _____ of our sinful hearts and yet He set His love on us anyway.

c. Christ's _____ for His children will prove to be successful.

d. Christ will never leave or _____ His children.