

Welcome to the Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

We extend a special welcome to our visitors. Please join us as we seek God's face in worship. This has been a solemn fast day for our congregation and a day to afflict our souls over our sins and the sins of our church and nation. We worship the Lord tonight in a special way through this service of corporate repentance and covenant renewal.

Please join us in humbling ourselves before God and seeking the mercies of Jesus Christ for He is especially close to those who have a contrite spirit and a broken heart.

The Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Midwest Presbytery of the RPCNA. You can learn more about us at www.dallasrpc.org. Follow us on Facebook for up-to-date information and events: www.facebook.com/DallasRPCNA.

Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

That in all things He might have the preeminence

A congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)

Blow the trumpet in Zion,
Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders,
Gather the children, and those that suck the breasts:
Let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD

Directory for Public Worship (1645): Concerning Solemn Public Fasting

When some great and notable judgments are either inflicted upon a people, or apparently imminent, or by some extraordinary provocations notoriously deserved; as also when some special blessing is to be sought and obtained, public solemn fasting (which is to continue the whole day) is a duty that God expecteth from that nation or people.

Before the close of the public duties, the minister is, in his own and the people's names, to engage his and their hearts to be the Lord's, with professed purpose and resolution to reform whatever is amiss among them, and more particularly such sins as they have been more remarkably guilty of; and to draw near unto God, and to walk more closely and faithfully with him in new obedience, than ever before.
