

The Ultimate Fear of a Shepherd

1 Thessalonians 3:1-5

I. OUR MOTIVATION: (3:1-2)

Why we sent Timothy to you.

A. Settle Anxiety of the Shepherds

1. Endure no longer
2. Left behind alone

B. Minister to the Flock

1. His qualification:
2. His task

II. OUR INSTRUCTION: (3:3-4)

What you need to know in suffering.

A. Suffering can be Unsettling

B. Suffering is Appointed

C. Suffering should be Expected

III. MY FEAR: (3:5)

How I personally fear for your souls.

A. My Anxiety about your faith

“I would choose to be cut limb from limb sooner than see those whom I have loved and honored fall from the faith. It is a bitter thing to us who are ministers of Christ, it is our curse and plague, it costs us sleepless nights and miserable days when we hear of those that did run well apparently who turn back to the world, who play the Judas.” – Charles Spurgeon.

endure no longer
“beyond the capacity of
patience”

left behind alone
“abandoned alone &
vulnerable”

Brother & Fellow-worker

To strengthen & encourage faith

disturbed
“unsettling; disheartening”

destined “sovereignly placed”

1Pet.4.12-14
2Tim.3.12

apostasy “unpardonable abandonment
of faith”

Tempter’s success
Minister’s wasted effort

The Ultimate Fear of a Shepherd

1 Thessalonians 3:1-5

I. OUR MOTIVATION: (3:1-2)

Why we sent Timothy to you.

A. Settle Anxiety of the Shepherds

1. Endure no longer
2. Left behind alone

B. Minister to the Flock

1. His qualification:
2. His task

II. OUR INSTRUCTION: (3:3-4)

What you need to know in suffering.

A. Suffering can be Unsettling

B. Suffering is Appointed

C. Suffering should be Expected

III. MY FEAR: (3:5)

How I personally fear for your souls.

A. My Anxiety about your faith

“I would choose to be cut limb from limb sooner than see those whom I have loved and honored fall from the faith. It is a bitter thing to us who are ministers of Christ, it is our curse and plague, it costs us sleepless nights and miserable days when we hear of those that did run well apparently who turn back to the world, who play the Judas.” – Charles Spurgeon.

endure no longer
“beyond the capacity of
patience”

left behind alone
“abandoned alone &
vulnerable”

Brother & Fellow-worker

To strengthen & encourage faith

disturbed
“unsettling; disheartening”

destined “sovereignly placed”

1Pet.4.12-14
2Tim.3.12

apostasy “unpardonable abandonment
of faith”

Tempter’s success
Minister’s wasted effort

