

Wildwood Baptist Church
January 20, 2013
“Quiet on the set . . .Action”

Mark 1: 21-22

The scribes taught law—but Jesus brought life.

Mark 1: 23-28

Jesus has full authority in the spiritual realm.

Mark 1: 34, 40-42

Jesus has full authority over all physical needs.

The Leper’s Example for sinners:

- He went to Jesus and pleaded.
- He was reverent—falling to his knees.
- He sowed humility and submission by stating, “If you are willing.”
- He believed! “You can!”
- He acknowledged a need, “. . .make me clean.”
- He didn’t ask for blessing, he wanted to be made “clean.”

How we approach Jesus matters greatly in how He responds.

Mark 1: 43-45, 32-33, 35

Even the Son looks to the Father for daily direction.

Isaiah 50: 4; Mark 1: 36-39

Prayer is a conduit to our source of power and strength.

The end of prayer is a call for action.

Wildwood Baptist Church
January 20, 2013
“Quiet on the set . . .Action”

Mark 1: 21-22

The scribes taught law—but Jesus brought life.

Mark 1: 23-28

Jesus has full authority in the spiritual realm.

Mark 1: 34, 40-42

Jesus has full authority over all physical needs.

The Leper’s Example for sinners:

- He went to Jesus and pleaded.
- He was reverent—falling to his knees.
- He sowed humility and submission by stating, “If you are willing.”
- He believed! “You can!”
- He acknowledged a need, “. . .make me clean.”
- He didn’t ask for blessing, he wanted to be made “clean.”

How we approach Jesus matters greatly in how He responds.

Mark 1: 43-45, 32-33, 35

Even the Son looks to the Father for daily direction.

Isaiah 50: 4; Mark 1: 36-39

Prayer is a conduit to our source of power and strength.

The end of prayer is a call for action.

