Galatians 3:15-18

Galatians 3:15

The analogy is a man-made covenant, and Paul is using covenants as an illustration of _____.

Galatians 3:17-18

Background:

Genesis 12:1-3, 7; 15:5-6; 17:4-8

Exodus 20:1-17; 24:3, 7

Romans 4:13-14 For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

Galatians 3:16

Big ideas:

- The promises to Abraham came first, so they are primary, and the Law of Moses is secondary. The latter served the former.
- Obeying laws and believing in promises are very different and mutually-exclusive ways of obtaining promised blessing. Once you've believed the promises, don't go back to depending on law.
- The Abrahamic promises were intended all along to be fulfilled in Christ, and then for all of those who are united to Christ by faith. God's blessings are not found in Christ + something else. They're all found in Christ.

_____ is the cornerstone of it all.

The big picture:

Acts 2:16-39

Acts 13:13-48

Hebrews 6:13-20

Ephesians 2:8-3:12

What is the point of the imperfect human analogy?
