

PHILIPPIANS
To Live Is Christ
Philippians 1:19-21

Mac Williams, Pastor
November 26, 2017

1. Believers can rejoice in the truth that the Lord will _____ their salvation so that they will persevere in their faith to the end.

- a. Believers can be confident that the Lord will enable them to courageously _____ even the most difficult of trials.
- b. The Lord uses the _____ of His people for one another as a means of their perseverance in salvation.

“He speaks as he thinks, knowing that the prayers of the righteous, aye, even of the least of them, made in faith, are of great efficacy. And he speaks of them in this manner, that they may be induced to pray so much the more ardently to the Lord for him.” - Jean Daille

- c. Believers are enabled to persevere in their salvation by the ongoing work of the _____ of Jesus Christ.

2. Believers can rejoice that their _____ is in Christ.

- a. _____ life is dependent on Christ.
- b. _____ life and all of the blessings of salvation are given in Christ.
- c. The purpose of all aspects of the believer’s life is the _____ of Christ.

3. Believers can rejoice that when they _____, they will die in Christ.

“There is no _____ path; we must gain all and have all with Him, or we must lose all out of Him.” - Jean Daille