Dr. George Scipione is a member of the National Association of Nouthetic Counselors, for which he also is a Supervising Fellow and a board member. Since 2008 he has been developing and directing a Biblical Counseling Institute at Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Pittsburg PA.

He has been a minister in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church for nearly 35 years, and is the founder and former director of the Institute for Biblical Counseling and Discipleship in San Diego, a ministry that trains church officers and laymen in the principles and practices of counseling based on the Word of God as a fully sufficient guide. He practices and teaches the nouthetic counseling method (see NANC.org). It has developed over the last forty years with various applications and been popularized in the U.S. by well-known pastors and authors such as Jay Adams, John MacArthur, and Al Mohler.

George C. Scipione
*Director of the Biblical Counseling
Institute, Professor of
Pastoral Theology
