

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“Recounting a Good King’s Successes and Failures”

Isaiah 38

- I. We have a tender moment where Hezekiah was to _____
and is granted 15 extra years (38:1-8).

2 Kings 18:1-8; Psalm 17:1-5

- II. Hezekiah writes a _____ recounting his despair
and God’s answer to prayer (39:9-22).

Exodus 15:1

- III. During a diplomatic visit by Babylon, likely to discuss
Hezekiah becoming a _____ king to Merodach-Baladan, Hezekiah receives the Babylonians
and _____ the wealth he could “bring
to the table” in their new relationship (39:1-4).

Isaiah 30: 1-5; 31:1

- IV. Hezekiah, and ultimately Judah, is _____ for _____ (39:5-8).

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“Recounting a Good King’s Successes and Failures”

Isaiah 38

- I. We have a tender moment where Hezekiah was to _____
and is granted 15 extra years (38:1-8).

2 Kings 18:1-8; Psalm 17:1-5

- II. Hezekiah writes a _____ recounting his despair
and God’s answer to prayer (39:9-22).

Exodus 15:1

- III. During a diplomatic visit by Babylon, likely to discuss
Hezekiah becoming a _____ king to Merodach-Baladan, Hezekiah receives the Babylonians
and _____ the wealth he could “bring
to the table” in their new relationship (39:1-4).

Isaiah 30: 1-5; 31:1

- IV. Hezekiah, and ultimately Judah, is _____ for _____ (39:5-8).