

“The Conduct of God’s Servant”

2 Timothy 2:20-26

- b. We must assume that God will not give up on _____ teachers who are doing _____ bidding (2:25b-26).

1 Timothy 1:20

I. In a great house one will find a mixed collection of _____ serving a variety of purposes, good and bad (2:20).

- a. The servant of God must cleanse himself from that which is dishonorable so as to become a vessel of _____ for the master (2:21).

Ephesians 2:10; Romans 16:17; 1 Timothy 1:19-20; 2 Timothy 2:16; Titus 3:9-11

- b. Cleanse yourself from that which is dishonorable, flee _____ passions, and pursue righteousness with those who do the same (2:22).

- c. Avoid foolish and ignorant _____ that breed argumentation (2:23).

1 Timothy 6:11; 3-11; 1:5-7

II. God’s servant must not be quarrelsome but _____ (2:24a).

- a. God’s servant must have some _____ to teach, _____ in the face of one acting with evil intents, and _____ in correcting opponents (2:24b-25a).

Proverbs 17:27