

Christ is the rightful possessor of the Key of David, which represents three aspects of His character & work.

- I. Christ's faithfulness is foreshadowed by Eliakim's unfaithfulness (Isaiah 22:20-25).
- II. Christ's authority as Judge includes the right to open or shut the doors to the kingdom (Revelation 3:7-8).
- III. Christ has delegated His authority to the church via the preaching & teaching of the gospel (Matthew 16:18-20).

Christ is the rightful possessor of the Key of David, which represents three aspects of His character & work.

- I. Christ's faithfulness is foreshadowed by Eliakim's unfaithfulness (Isaiah 22:20-25).
- II. Christ's authority as Judge includes the right to open or shut the doors to the kingdom (Revelation 3:7-8).
- III. Christ has delegated His authority to the church via the preaching & teaching of the gospel (Matthew 16:18-20).