

"Change Your Perspective on Suffering" 1 Peter 4:12-19

I. O	ur na	atural response to hardship is probably the response (4:12).
James 1:2
	a.	Realign persecution experiences as
		that you have a share in the glory of Christ at His revelation (4:13).
Luke 6:26
	b.	The of Christ guides Christians into and through suffering (4:14).
II. Th	nere	are forms of suffering in which you to be ashamed and those in which yo	u be ashamed:
	a.	Anyone suffering as a murderer, thief, evildoer or as an "overseer of others" (!)
		ought to be ashamed (4:15).
	b.
		his/her thinking about
		shame and honor (4:16).

Matthew 5:12; Acts 5:41

sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	ungodly—if God is allowing harsh judgments for sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	ungodly—if God is allowing harsh judgments for sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the suffering and leads to the	ungodly—if God is allowing harsh judgments for sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the suffering and leads to the	at	the of God (4:17)!
sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? Ilonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the form of persecution when the	sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and let	sin on His own children in the form of persecution what will be their (4:18)? alonians 1:8 b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and let	a.	Peter's notes the even greater dilemma for the what will be their (4:18)? Jonians 1:8* b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	what will be their (4:18)? Tonians 1:8* b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the state of	what will be their (4:18)? Tonians 1:8* b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the state of	what will be their (4:18)? Tonians 1:8* b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and leads to the state of		ungodly—if God is allowing harsh judgments for
b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le		sin on His own child	ren in the form of perse	ecutio
b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le	b. As believer's encounter suffering, each should know that God is and le		what will be their	(4:18)?
	know that God is and le	know that God is and le	know that God is and le	iians	1:8
know that God is and l				b.	As believer's encoun	ter suffering, each sho	uld that motivate him or her to do good (4:19).	that motivate him or her to do good (4:19).	that motivate him or her to do good (4:19).		know that God is	;	and le that motivate him or her to do good (4:19).					that motivate him or	her to do good (4:19).		