

“God’s Coming To The Nations”

An Ancient And Applicable Psalm Of Joy!

Psalm 98

Settings In The Psalter 2 of 4

In his love our gracious God has given us “Psalms” or “Melodies” (see Title) in which to sing our praises unto him and through which to understand our lives. Today we consider a simple and beautiful psalm in its historical setting and contemporary application. Consider how the first coming and second coming of Christ are prophesied in this psalm. Sing it in remembrance of the incarnation of the Son of God and the expectation of the great consummation that brings to completion God’s plan for his world!

I. The Lord’s _____ (v. 1-3)

1. _____ is a critical part of your _____.
2. Understanding God’s _____ and _____ (_____).
3. Embracing the _____ of _____ righteousness.
4. Why the _____ matters!

II. Our Response of _____ (v. 4-6)

1. The _____ commanded:
2. The _____ employed (Ps. 118:27):
3. The _____ understood:

III. The Promised _____ (v. 7-9)

1. The nations will _____, but God is calling ___ to _____.
2. Amidst lots of _____ and _____ God is making a _____.
3. We can patiently _____ a _____ and _____ (2 Pe. 3:13).
4. The _____ of all the _____ will do what is _____. We can _____ Him!