

A Warning Against Avarice

Job 20

I. God's policy toward avarice introduced a – His policy is widely known

b – His policy never changes

II. God's policy toward avarice further explained.

a – From the heights of honor, the avaricious will collapse into dishonor.

b – From being objects of fear, the avaricious will become objects of ridicule.

c – From living in a dream world, the avaricious will awaken to harsh reality.

d – From the center of attention, the avaricious will fade into obscurity.

e – From the place of privilege, the children of the avaricious will fall into disgrace.

f – From a position of greatness, the avaricious will tumble into irrelevance.

III. Application

a – Initially, the pursuit of wealth can feel very satisfying.

b – As a result, it can be very difficult to give up.

c – But if you don't let your avarice go, it will be your downfall.

1 – it will turn on you like poison

2 – It will invite divine judgment