

ISAIAH

The Servant and His Servants Isaiah 50:4-51:8

Mac Williams, Pastor
January 15, 2017

1. The _____ of God.

- a. The Servant of God is an exemplary _____.
- b. The Servant of God shares with _____ what He has been taught of the Lord.
- c. The Servant of God is _____, even to the point of painful humiliation.
- d. The Servant of God is _____ that the Lord God will vindicate Him against all those who contend with Him.

2. The servants of God's Servant.

- a. To be a servant of the Servant of God requires a _____ of faith and obedience to His voice. Trusting one's own wisdom leads to dire consequences.

b. The Servant gives good reasons for why His servants should obey His _____.

- 1) The God that made a great nation out of a barren couple, will comfort His people in their desolation and bring abundant _____.
- 2) The truth of God will result in _____ salvation, characterized by righteousness that is for all the peoples of the earth.
- 3) The people of God have an eternal righteousness and can be courageous in the face of _____ momentary ridicule.

"True _____ springs from this consideration, that, although the world reject us a 'filth and offscourings,' (1 Cor. 4:13) God hold us in estimation; because we maintain the same cause with Himself." - John Calvin