

Jesus and Isaiah's Miraculous Prophecies, part 1 The Savior and His Spiritual Sword, Part 7

- The prophet Isaiah miraculously intersects many times with the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.
- Many Bible rejecting scholars deny that Isaiah wrote all of Isaiah, saying that the subject matter, the difference in language style, and the differences in theological ideas of Isaiah 1-39 and 40-66 prove two different authors. Whatever man says does not matter because God's Word is clear that Isaiah wrote all of Isaiah, John 12:37-41.
- One such miraculous prophecy that drives liberals (crazy!) to deny Isaiah's authorship relates to King Cyrus, mentioned BY NAME in Isaiah 44:28 and 45:1. Isaiah wrote about 700 B.C. and Cyrus lived 150 years later!
- Let's consider how Jesus fulfills many of Isaiah's miraculous prophecies:

1. Jesus is The Virgin Born Son of Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23

- God broke through the heavens to miraculously conceive His Son in the virgin Mary's womb completely apart from the man's reproductive physical seed. Astounding! (see also Isaiah 9:6,7)
- Trust Jesus to DO the Impossible for You and Through You!

2. Jesus is The Anointed Messenger of Isaiah 61; Luke 4:16-21

- Jesus came for...
  - A. The Bankrupt: Those spiritually destitute
  - B. The Brokenhearted: Those emotionally shattered
  - C. The Bound: Those morally depraved
  - D. The Blind: Those intellectually heedless
  - E. The Bruised: Those mortally wounded.
- Trust Jesus to DEFEAT the Chains of our deepest difficulties, sorrows, and sins!

3. Jesus is the Messianic Healer of Isaiah 35:5; Matthew 11:5 (Luke 7:19-23).

- John the Baptist in the darkness of his doubt is encouraged by Isaiah's prophecy that the Messiah will heal the blind, lame, and deaf.
- Trust Jesus to DISSOLVE your darkest doubts!

4. Jesus is the Spirit-Filled Servant of Isaiah 42:1-4; Matthew 12:14-21.

1. His Election!

2. His Gentleness!

Matthew 12:20; A bruised reed shall He not break, and a smoking flax He shall He not quench!

3. His Victory!

• Trust Jesus to DELIVER you and Use You again, on fire for Him!
