

Psalm 42

- I. _____ of depression Vs 1-4, 6-7, 9-10
- A. Desperately looking for God, but not seeming able to _____ Him Vs 1-2
1. As a thirsty deer pants, craves, seeks after much _____ water
 2. In the same way the writer pants, craves, seeks after much needed _____ with, and intervention from God
 - a. From the remaining statements in the Psalm it seems this is more of a _____ searching than a calm searching
 - b. Thirsteth-_____ a great need for water
 3. The writer specifies what God he is thirsting for
 - a. The living God-distinguished from all other so-called gods
 - b. Living-The God who truly _____ and demonstrates vigorous energy
 4. The writer expresses his longing clearly: "When shall I come and appear before God?"
 - a. When-how _____ is it going to take
 - b. Come and appear before God-_____ into the presence of God
- B. The _____ of others Vs 3
1. Their _____ questions
 2. The _____ of those questions
- C. The _____ of how things used to be Vs 4
1. The remembrance of the joyful fellowship with other _____ that "used to be"
 2. The remembrance of the joyful fellowship with _____ that "used to be"
- D. The _____ of separation from God Vs 6
1. The _____ Vs 6a
 2. The remembrance of _____ joy and fellowship Vs 6b
- E. The feeling of being _____ up by the present events of life Vs 7
1. The _____ of the events that seem overwhelming-Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts
 2. The feeling of being _____ by the events-All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me
- F. The feeling of being _____ by God Vs 9
- G. The painful _____ of others Vs 10
1. As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me-the _____ of their taunting remarks is like someone sticking a knife in me
 2. While they say daily unto me, "Where is thy God?"-Their taunting is a daily _____ of their dislike for me and my God
- II. _____ for depression Vs 5, 8, 11
- A. The introspective _____ Vs 5a, 11a
1. Why art thou cast down?-Why are you _____?
 2. Why art thou disquieted in me?-What has _____ you of your joy in the Lord?
 3. O my soul-_____ examination of the thoughts and feelings one is having
- B. The introspective _____ Vs 5b, 11b
1. _____ your faith and trust in God no matter what-Hope thou in God
 2. _____ to see the end of this depressive state-For I shall yet praise him
- C. The introspective _____ Vs 5c, 11c
1. For the help of his countenance
 2. Who is the health of my countenance, and my God